Thoughts while strolling Shhhh! Percy wouldn't have his wife know it for the world but he was all up in the air over a certain head he set on his trap to grapple.

Gashowen-Hagan better known as Frenchy-Hagan sounded as if she came from a month of Marlot but she really is a nice girl.

Bill Stewart—See any change in me?—Mrs. Ellsworth—No, why?

Bill Stewart exhibited fifteen years.

Virginia Marks college racket has been red. It all happened when Virginia came into view with her classic wrapped in a pink sport model lamour.

NICHOLS TAKES THE COUNT

Walter G. Weller, New York, has arrived home to stage a "Party." Artie Ellsworth has won the count. Nailed last remnant of the old adage gentleman once confessed to having had his heart broken twice in a year, and then he had the principles of a care. He avowed to have them a day but photonic friendship and casting out optic debris we saw him go into the crutches of the local barroom. Only the thrill down the full party on the home and proceed to get garage He's been a victim of such nose down.

There is a young matron named Ruth Who is a woman in later, they say.
Her son, the real low-down To come drop around To the high office any old day.

Miss Cretser—How could Shakepear have said, "Here come a boy-legged man?"

Kirk Trimman—Behold! What is the approaching in parenthesis?"

Odds And Ends Of Yesteryear

We reproduce today for the first time in 25 years a photograph taken from an old woodcut of Mrs.
Moxius' Carp, maternal grandmother of Frank Ray. Although many changes can be noticed in the facial features, most of the characteristics of Mrs. Carp can be traced through the years to her famous grandson, Mr. Ray.

According to another one of our private slights, Harold Martin's own mother, but incidentally, sport writer was once intended to make at a role which is contrary to popular belief. This is only a rumor however, we take it for what it's worth.

Lesenski has a weakness for blondes so we've heard. The question was, was this the truth. After careful investigations by a Sizzler staff reporter the answer is "Yes."

Her bosom pal and buddy Miss Jane Knight has so far shown no more than a motherly interest in the male element of our fair college but under the expert tutelage of Miss Lesenski she may yet wreak havoc in the hearts of our men.

Sime and so what?

Ultimate information is being received through secret channels that Mildred Scott has at last consented to get the year book out in time for the opening of school in August 1933. This is a bit relief to all of us who thought that it couldn't possibly be published before the spring of the following year.

Baker In Expose

Bonnie Calippo—Baker, ex-white scribe and grandest of columnists has recently been destroyed as the ghost writer responsible for Alice Sample McPherson Hutton's sensational expose of cheese peddlers?

Toddy Ellsworth has recently won the P.D.P. after proving him to be a pretty hot daddy.

WUXTRY! WUXTRY! WUXTRY!

All about the proposed a young troop to Dr. Arne on Army

What is this coming generation smiling to? From all latest reports compiled by our secret correspondent we gather that two of our able journalists Marian Cross and Emma "Shorty" Puckett have become infatuated with the world's best Dr. Arne on.

To critic all dispute, the young troop to Dr. Arne on the argument by to bring a suit for him had to face "Shorty" last and had to make the sphygmograph play

A scribbler sleuth followed Art Carr down town the other day and heard him order a new suit from Omar the Tentmaker.

Eat heartily, friends.
This food wasn't cooked in the college caf.

STALE BREAD FROM BAKER'S OVEN

Madrigal Singers to give Program at Frederic Burk, Mrs. Ellsworth supervises concert booked for this evening. Dick Hull will sing the soprano lead in the cantata "Behold the Lilies of the Field." They Neither nor Nor Do they Spin." The change of title has been suggested as more appropriate "Behold the pastries of the publications office," they never fail etc.

Faculty opinions
Miss Vance OKs the Madrigal singing of the 16th century, but considers No. 113 vocalizing unnecessary.

Miss Book—Student election of officers will hold sway.

Dan Baker—I believe that the Landberg baby is hidden in Norbert Nichols' suitcase.

Dina Cretser—"That was no today, that was my wife."

Puckett—"Huh?"

Van Merten—"La Bong Nuy falls, no one else is hurt."

They say anything filled with gas or hot air goes up, but Jake Shesmano seems to manage to keep two feet on terra firma. Hi, Jake old boy!"

Imagine Ed Stewart's embarrassment when he tried to date a certain blonde and she answered his invite with "Sure I'll come and shall I bring the husband and kids?"

My boy, beware of the baby stare.
Because if it's a bluff Cross knows too much and if it's not, Cross doesn't know enough.

Special telephoto of Dan Baker giving birth to an infant.
Baker claims it's all a mistake but we know better.
He's been thinking again.

LAST MINUTE NEWS

MINNEHAHA, Patagonia, Apr. 28 (APS) — Mr. and Mrs. Moxius Burp, former co-editors of the S.E.S.T.C.
SIZZLER, arrived here late tonight from San Francisco, California. They refused to comment on their unexpected trip, saying only that they intended to leave for the interior early tomorrow morning.
